

Reid Bierer was born in Washington, Pennsylvania and has been a resident of Palm Beach County for over thirty years. Reid attended Furman University, where he graduated with a B.A. in Philosophy in 1987. Reid was named to the Dean's List and was active in a variety of campus activities. Reid attended graduate school at Bowling Green State University where he earned his Masters Degree in Philosophy. He then attended The Dickinson School of Law, earning his J.D. in 1992. He served as Staff Editor of the Dickinson Journal of Environmental Law & Policy.

Reid was admitted to the Florida Bar in 1992. He began practicing law with the Palm Beach County Public Defender's Office, gaining significant trial experience. There he represented clients charged with a wide variety of offenses from misdemeanors to homicide and other serious felonies. During those years, Reid served on the Board of Directors of the Palm Beach County Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers and on the Executive Committee of the Palm Beach County Young Lawyers Division. In 1999, Reid joined Lesser, Lesser, Landy & Smith, PLLC on an Of-Counsel basis, concentrating on criminal defense and personal injury litigation. During this time period, his enthusiasm for and expertise in the personal injury area of practice grew. In 2002, Reid decided to pursue personal injury full time and joined the firm as an Associate. He has significant trial experience, having tried more than 100 cases and litigated cases in both the State and Federal Courts. Since joining the firm, Reid has brought his litigation experience to bear in obtaining significant recoveries for the firm's injured clients. In addition to his personal injury practice, Reid is the Chair of the Firm's Social Security Disability Department.

Reid is a member of the Florida Justice Association, Palm Beach County Justice Association, Palm Beach County Bar Association and the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida. He is a member of the Salvation Army Advisory Board and volunteers his time with other civic and charitable organizations. Reid is married to Amy Everard Bierer, an attorney practicing in West Palm Beach, Florida.
